

DECEMBER 1st marks the 50th anniversary of the day that Rosa Parks, a garment worker and civil rights activist, refused to give up her bus seat to a white man, and sparked the Montgomery bus boycott against segregation on public buses, one of the most successful and truly mass boycotts in history.

It is fitting to celebrate this anniversary with nationwide actions to unite our communities against poverty, racism & war and for economic and social justice.

On Dec. 1 we also want to protest FEMA (Federal Emergency Management Agency) plans to evict thousands of Katrina evacuees from hotels and put families on the streets; as well as the local utility rate hikes that are another disaster in the making.

On Thursday DECEMBER 1 –
Gather 2:30pm at Philadelphia City Hall
15th & Market Sts.

For a Rally & March to say:

Bring the troops home now • Justice for Katrina evacuees
• Military recruiters out of our schools • Jobs at living wages • Cut the war budget – not healthcare, education & housing • Roll back the PGW & PECO rate hikes!

Initiated by: Philadelphia International Action Center
